Brethren,
It is with profound gratitude and humility that I address you today as we embark on a new chapter in the illustrious history of our Lodge. I am deeply honored to have been reelected as your Worshipful Master for the year 2024, and I want to express my heartfelt appreciation for your trust and confidence in me and profoundly gratitude to all the officers and Brothers that actively help on making this Lodge better. This honor is a testament to the unwavering dedication and commitment of each and every member of our Lodge, and I am fully aware of the responsibility that it carries.

As we look to the future of St. John's Lodge Number 9, let us do so with enthusiasm, optimism, and a sense of purpose. Our Lodge has been a beacon of light in the Seattle Masonic community for over a century and a half. We have seen generations of Masons pass through our doors, leaving their indelible mark on the legacy of our beloved fraternity. Together, we are the custodians of this legacy, entrusted with preserving and nurturing it for the generations to come.

In the year ahead, let us focus on fostering unity and brotherhood within our Lodge. By working together, supporting one another, and adhering to the timeless principles of Freemasonry, we can continue to strengthen the bonds that make our fraternity so extraordinary. Through our rituals and philanthropic endeavors, we can extend a helping hand to our local community, further cementing our Lodge's reputation as a force for good.

I am excited about the opportunities that lie ahead. Our Lodge has weathered the test of time, and I have every confidence that we will not only endure but thrive. Let us continue to encourage the participation of new members and engage with the broader community. Let us explore new ways to connect and interact, keeping our traditions alive while adapting to the needs of the modern world.

In closing, I am excited about the journey that awaits us in 2024. With your unwavering support and dedication, I am confident that we will build upon the rich history of St. John's Lodge Number 9 and create a future that is as bright and promising as our past. Together, we will forge ahead, bound by the principles of Masonry, and lead our Lodge into a new era of success and prosperity.

ST. JOHN'S INSTALLS OFFICERS FOR 2024 AT NOVEMBER STATED

St. John's brothers are encouraged to invite their friends and family to our 164th annual installation of officers as we approach the end of our Masonic year. Members of our leadership team will be installed into their stations and places at the November 15th stated communication and open installation of officers. This grand ceremony will be held Wednesday evening, following a (hopefully) short business session. The ceremony will be "off-session" to permit our ladies and guests to enjoy the evening.

Past Grand Master MWBro. Gale Kenney, assisted by MWBro. Al Jorgensen, will install our Master-elect Eric Koteles and his officer corps. WBro. Koteles has demonstrated an unwavering resolve for Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth and will lead an array of talented officers as we continue our efforts to promote Masonic Enlightenment and steps to aid and assist brethren and neighbors in our community. WBro. Koteles will be entering his second consecutive term as Master of St. John's and previously served in that capacity in 2014.

Past Grand Master (2009-2010) Gale Kenney will be principal installing officer for Master Eric Koteles

Assisting Bro. Koteles this year will be WBro. John Murray Louderback as Senior Warden and WBro. David Flood as Junior Warden. VWBro. Jim Russell will be returning as Secretary, while VWBro. Jim Maher will begin his fifteenth year as Treasurer and WBro. Adam Creighton enters his seventeenth as Musician! Other officers are WBro. Kemalcán Jimmerson, Senior Deacon; VWBro. John Adamson, Senior Steward; VWBro. Chuck Brockway, Marshal; and WBro. Terry Grove, Tyler.

WBro. Blair Neumann will join WBro. Hans Wehl and MWBro. Al Jorgensen as a newly elected member of the Board of Trustees, replacing VWBro. Chuck Brockway. VWBro. Brockway has served as a Trustee for St. John's since 1999. Senior Warden WBro. Louderback also serves on the Board of Trustees along with the Worshipful Master and Secretary and Treasurer in their ex-officio capacities.

Please make your dinner reservations with the secretary at 206 623-0261 by Friday, November 9, prior to the meeting. If you need a ride, the secretary will be happy to find one for you. Do you know of a brother who has not attended Lodge in a while? Call him and ask if you can pick him up and bring him to Lodge.

Bro. Louis Turner has dedicated a substantial effort to his Masonic studies, and it's only fitting that we put forth the same level of commitment to make his degree ceremony truly special.

FROM THE WEST

WBro. John Murray Louderback

The concerns of our past Masonic Brothers was most likely many of the same concerns we have today. Securing food and water, shelter, security and safety, clothing, health concerns were all as important then as they are now. I do believe that most everyone shared the belief that what was good for the community would most likely be beneficial to the individual. The interconnected society of friends, family, and Brothers was found essential for survival.

Being a Mason set a man apart from others, in that he could be trusted.

Fashion and trends change but our core values have and must remain the same. We should not be concerned with fashion or trends that do not reflect our Masonic core values. Society does not remain the same and we should be willing to accept social changes that do not reflect on a man's character. There was a time in our Lodge when most Brothers had long beards and may have worn muddy pants and boots—doing so did not make them less Masonic.

As Senior Warden of this Lodge let me remind the Brethren that we all meet upon the level.

We must understand that which makes us Masons and that the important precepts of Masonry are firmly rooted. Our duty then is to find ways to anchor Masonry into society today and to build bridges.

By compassionate acceptance of others we can build those bridges from the past to the present and into the future.

How many more times will you watch the full moon rise?

The autumn leaves fall and the days darken. We have just made our farewells for a distinguished brother. We will soon confer the Master Mason degree. The profound message of that degree is always a cause for reflection.

As the end of the year draws near let us take this opportunity to examine where we stand as men and as Masons. We can ask ourselves - who and what is important in our lives; and what might we do to enrich those experiences? There is a real urgency in not leaving undone those things which we ought to have done. Likewise, as the Lodge enters a period of transition, let us contemplate and act on the things we can do right now to ensure its health and prosperity, not only in the months to come but also in the long years of our Lodge's future.

2024 Annual Membership Fees Due

Notices for annual dues were mailed to all dues-owing members of St. John's in October. Don't forget that we no longer issue plastic cards. The new electronic dues cards will not work unless you have paid your dues for the current year. You can access your own dues card on Grand View to print or use electronically on your phone. A quick scan by the Tyler of your printed QR Code will show whether or not you are current for the year.

2024 dues structure for membership in St. John's:

1. Past Masters, Life Members, 50-year members = $0
2. Age 65+ = $75 + $28 = $103*
3. Residence 50+ miles from Lodge = $75 + $28 = $103*
4. Other Raised Master Masons = $200+$28=$228*
5. Future Plural Members (local residence) prorated quarterly at joining:

- a. Jan. – March 2024 = $228
- b. Apr. – June = $171
- c. July – Sept. = $114

Let's LOOK AT THAT A LITTLE CLOSER

There are many guides to learning Masonic ritual, most of which look at it from the viewpoint of learning the words. Of course, we need to learn the words, we cannot deliver ritual without having done so. However just learning the words leaves the candidate rather short. Just as important as the words are the feeling and emotion that help to communicate the meaning of those words. It is the ability to bring these in that marks the difference between a good ritualist and a really great one. Who seems to be able to conjure up an electric atmosphere in the Lodge room, that holds the candidate and others listening, spellbound until the end.

How to Deliver an Unforgettable Masonic Ritual (Mastering the Mindset)

by Masonic Find

If you're a Freemason, you know that delivering a Masonic ritual is a significant part of the experience.

Whether you're performing a degree ceremony or giving a lecture, the way you deliver the ritual can make a significant impact on the audience.

The goal is to create an unforgettable experience that resonates with the attendees long after the event is over.

However, delivering a memorable Masonic ritual requires more than just memorizing the words.

It requires a specific mindset that enables you to connect with the audience, convey the meaning behind the ritual, and make it a truly meaningful experience.

This mindset involves a combination of preparation, focus, and intention that allows you to deliver the ritual with confidence and authenticity.

In this article, we'll explore the mindset required to deliver an extraordinary Masonic ritual.

We'll discuss the importance of preparation, the role of focus and intention, and practical tips for delivering a powerful ritual.

Whether you're a seasoned Masonic veteran or a newly initiated member, this article will provide you with valuable insights and techniques that will help you take your ritual performance to the next level.

Understanding the Importance of Mindset

When it comes to delivering a Masonic ritual, having the right mindset is crucial.

Your mindset is the set of beliefs and attitudes that shape how you approach challenges, interact with others, and perform your duties.

It influences your thoughts, feelings, and actions and can have a significant impact on your ability to succeed.

Having a growth mindset is especially important for Masonic ritualists.

A growth mindset is the belief that your abilities and talents can be developed through hard work, dedication, and perseverance.

It means that you see challenges and setbacks as opportunities for learning and growth, rather than as evidence of your limitations.

With a growth mindset, you are more likely to take on new challenges, seek out feedback, and persist in the face of obstacles.

You are also more likely to be open to new ideas and perspectives, and to collaborate effectively with others.

On the other hand, a fixed mindset is the belief that your abilities and talents are fixed and cannot be changed.

This mindset can lead to a fear of failure, a reluctance to take on new challenges, and a tendency to avoid feedback and criticism.

Therefore, to deliver an amazing Masonic ritual, it is important to cultivate a growth mindset.

This means embracing challenges, seeking out feedback, and persisting in the face of setbacks. It also means being open to new ideas and perspectives and working collaboratively with others to achieve your goals.

Preparing for the Ritual

Mental Preparation

Preparing for a Masonic ritual requires a strong and focused mindset.

It's important to take the time to mentally prepare yourself before the ritual. This means clearing your mind of any distractions or negative thoughts that may affect your performance.

Take a few moments to meditate or practice deep breathing exercises to help calm your nerves and center your mind.

Visualizing the ritual beforehand can also be helpful in mentally preparing yourself.

This can involve imagining yourself performing the ritual flawlessly, with confidence and precision.

This mental rehearsal can help build your confidence and reduce any anxiety you may be feeling.

Physical Preparation

In addition to mental preparation, physical preparation is also crucial for delivering an impressive Masonic ritual.

This involves taking care of your body in the days leading up to the ritual. Make sure to get enough rest, eat a healthy diet, and stay hydrated.

It's also important to practice the physical movements and gestures required for the ritual.

This can involve rehearsing the steps and movements in front of a mirror or with a fellow Mason.

Practicing these movements can help you feel more comfortable and confident during the actual ritual.

Finally, make sure to dress appropriately for the ritual.

Wear clean and well-pressed Masonic attire, and make sure your regalia is in good condition.

This will not only help you look your best but will also help you feel more confident and prepared for the ritual.

Executing the Ritual

In this section, we'll explore each of these elements in detail, so you can be sure to execute the ritual flawlessly.

Focus and Presence

When delivering a Masonic ritual, it's essential to be fully present and focused on the task at hand.

This means letting go of any distractions or worries and being fully in the moment.

Take a few deep breaths before beginning the ritual to calm your nerves and clear your mind.

Once you begin, stay focused on the words and movements, and let the ritual guide you.

Emotional Connection

A powerful Masonic ritual requires an emotional connection with the audience.

This means delivering the words with conviction and feeling and making eye contact with the attendees.

Take the time to connect with each member of the audience, and let the emotion of the ritual flow through you.

This will help create a powerful and memorable experience for everyone involved.

Precision and Timing

Precision and timing are critical elements of a successful Masonic ritual.

Each movement and word must be executed with precision, and the timing must be perfect.

This requires practice and preparation, so you're confident in your ability to deliver the ritual flawlessly.

Take the time to rehearse the ritual, so you know exactly when to move and speak and can do so with confidence.

By focusing on these elements – focus, emotional connection, precision, and timing – you can execute a powerful and memorable Masonic ritual.

Remember to stay present and connected with the audience, and let the ritual guide you.

It's easier said than done, I know, but with practice and preparation, you will be able to deliver a part that will be remembered for years to come.

Reflecting on the Experience

After you're done, it is important to take some time to reflect on the experience.

Reflecting allows you to learn from your mistakes, celebrate your successes, and identify areas for improvement.

Lodge Opening Ceremonies

Lodge opening ceremonies are the most frequently practiced of all our rituals. One might think that since they are used at every meeting, this frequent repetition would make them one of the more stable and uniform parts of Masonic ritual. And in many ways they are. All Masonic Lodge opening rituals contain certain key elements, namely the addressing of security matters, the rehearsal of officers' duties, and the formal opening itself. But within this broad framework there exists an enormous range of variation from place to place in the order, method, and wording of the various elements which compose this general outline. The variations exhibited in contemporary opening rituals speak to the traditional diversity of Masonic ritual practices from the fraternity's earliest days.

Veterans Day 2023: November 11

Veterans Day originated as “Armistice Day” on Nov. 11, 1919, the first anniversary of the end of World War I. Congress passed a resolution in 1926 making it an annual observance, and it became a national holiday in 1938. Sixteen years later, then-President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed legislation changing the name to Veterans Day to honor all those who served their country during war or peacetime. On this day, the nation honors military veterans — living and dead — with parades and other observances across the country and a ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia.

Veterans Day – November 11, 2023 – will be on Saturday. Banks and Post Offices and other federal and state agencies, however, will be closed Friday, as well as Saturday.

“AND GIVE THEM PROPER INSTRUCTION”

Excerpt from Alphonse Cerza

The aim of Freemasonry is to teach men to live uprightly, do good in the community, and by their work to set a good example. Since the word “mason” implies work and Freemasonry glorifies the dignity of work, we can reasonably assume that the Craft should devote its attention to the kind of work which will help fulfill this aim.

There is no question that the Masonic ritual is the foundation of the Craft. In it we find the message that Freemasonry has for the candidate, its philosophy, and its moral teachings.

If one knows these lessons fully and completely, he is indeed a wise man. Too many of us are concerned more with perfection of the words rather than securing a full understanding of the spirit and the meaning of the ritual.

Let us not make the mistake of believing that the ceremony of initiation makes a man a Mason. True, this ceremony is vital and necessary, but unless the lessons of the ceremony and the spirit of the ritual is understood it is nothing.
